1. Make a list of all the good things God has given you (don't forget to include your roles and responsibilities as well as people and possessions):
2. Isaac is a very precious good gift from God, but the good gift could become more important and precious than God. Which of God's good gifts to you are you most likely to hold onto more tightly than to God?
3. Has there been a time when it seemed the LORD was asking you to "let go" of something that is incredibly precious to you? What was that like?
4. At the top of your list (question 1), write 'The word of the LORD to me: "Do not be afraid [add name], I am your shield, your very great reward."' Turn that into prayer.
